UPDATE, FREE LITE VERSION
Full version now priced at $4.99

Kirkland, WA – August 15, 2008 – Griptonite Games today announced a price drop for its original iPhone® game, Chimps Ahoy!, as well as a new lite version, both available on the Apple App Store. The full version of Chimps Ahoy! is now priced at $4.99, and an update has been released as well.

The Lite Version of the game is available for free and features seven full levels, offering players a quick sample of the gameplay available in the full version. Chimps Ahoy! Version 1.1 features audio and gameplay updates.

Chimps Ahoy! is a fast-paced, brick-breaking game where coconuts are bounced back and forth between two player-controlled Chimps on either side of the screen, using the multi-touch display. The game features 100 levels full of a variety of enemies and items at which to aim your coconuts. Power-ups like double coconuts and giant beach ball shots add to the action, while unlockable rewards like achievement medals and articles of clothing for the Chimps add replayability.
